Pre-Engagement Sessions

These two pre-engagement sessions will frame our engagement sessions of both the First Nations Safe Drinking Water Legislation reform and the First Nations Long Term Water and Wastewater Strategy, which will begin in January and continue into February.

- Regional pre-engagement sessions will 2 hours in length on ZOOM.
- They will serve as a discussion on prioritizing water and wastewater issues in your region and will help to learn the best approach for the more formal engagement sessions in the New Year.

Who should attend?

Chiefs, policy analysts, infrastructure technicians, public works managers, and water treatment plant operators with limit of two reps per community.
